ISIL 14th Winter Course on Alternative Dispute Resolution: Harmonizing International and National Practices
23 December 2024 -28 December 2024 (Physical Classes)

The Indian Society of International Law (ISIL) was founded in 1959 at the initiative of Shri V. K. Krishna Menon and was inaugurated in the same year by Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, the first Prime Minister of independent India, with the objective to "foster nation-wide the study and development of International Law and to encourage the comparative study of the application of International Law in other States". The ISIL has been publishing the Indian Journal of International Law since its inception, which has attained a high standard and is held in high esteem the world over. The ISIL has also a good library, which is used by scholars from all over India. It organizes annual conferences and seminars on international issues of contemporary interest. The teaching wing of the ISIL- the Indian Academy of International Law & Diplomacy - runs post-graduate diploma courses in various branches of international law. The ISIL organises every year a Summer Course and Winter Course in international law to bring to you the current developments and their importance in the field.

From academic year 2010, the ISIL organizes a one-week winter course every year on specific areas of international law viz., in 2010, the First Winter Course on International Environmental Law, Second to Thirteenth Winter Course held on topics International Trade Law, Private International Law, Trade and Investment Law, International Taxation Laws, Settlement of Dispute under International Law, International Maritime Law, International Migration and Refugee Law, International Law and National Security, Air and Space Law, Law of International Institutions, Health Law and Cyber Laws.

We are pleased to announce the ISIL 14th Winter Course on Alternative Dispute Resolution: Harmonizing International and National Practices which will commence from Monday 23 December 2024 to Saturday 28 December 2024 (25 December 2024 Holiday). The topics will relate to: "Foundations and Legal Framework of ADR: Comparative International and Indian Perspectives", "International and Indian Commercial Arbitration: Institutions, Rules, and Practices", "Arbitration in India: The Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 and Recent Amendments", "Mediation as a Global and Domestic Tool for Dispute Resolution: The Singapore Convention and India's Mediation Framework", "Conciliation: International Practices and India's Approach under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act", "Investment Treaty Arbitration and Conciliation: Global Trends and India's Approach", "ADR in Specific Sectors: Commercial, Intellectual Property, and Labor Disputes in India and Abroad", "Technological Innovations in ADR: The Rise of Online Dispute Resolution (ODR) in India and Internationally", "Enforcement of ADR Awards and Settlements: Comparative Challenges in International and Indian Contexts" etc.

The Society endeavors to make available the best expertise available in the respective fields as course instructors, including noted academicians, governmental, non-governmental, and UN officials etc.

The course will comprise classroom lectures, discussion, counselling and library consultation on weekdays. The course fee would be Rs. 3,000/- for students and Rs. 3,500/- for teachers and lawyers. Maximum 300 participants can be admitted based on first-cum basis. Demand drafts shall be drawn in favor of the Indian Society of International Law. Online registration is also placed on the ISIL website. At the end of the course, a certificate of attendance will be given to all the participants. The classes will be held at the Indian Society of International Law, New Delhi.

We hope you /your institution will use this opportunity to attend the winter course.
